

Phil Morabito

Project Manager

Phil Morabito, who holds an Associates Degree in Construction Management and General Studies, has been working with Concrete Protection & Restoration, (CP&R) since 2012 where he was hired as an Assistant Project Manager and was quickly promoted to Project Manager.

Upon joining the CP&R team, Phil has worked on a number of projects all varying in size and scope. Phil's work experience includes parking garage repairs, high rise repairs, expansion joints, waterproofing membranes, and steel beam repairs. In addition, Phil is an experienced draftsman, skilled in the AutoCAD program. Phil embraces the everyday challenges of his projects always striving to deliver superior service, implementing strategic solutions through cross-functional collaboration across the organization and with Owners and Engineers. Looking to expand his knowledge, Phil has also been assisting the Building Envelope Division Manager.

Phil grew up in the Baltimore area and is an avid Orioles and Ravens fan. In his spare time Phil enjoys playing sports such as flag football, basketball, golf, snowboarding, and going to the beach.
